

Jenny Klukken Marimba Workshop

Internship Position

Posted: March 21st, 2024

University of Minnesota, School of Music

Minneapolis, MN

Posting:

Seeking an individual to assist with the coordination of the Jenny Klukken Marimba Workshop on June 15th, 2024.

The ideal candidate:

- Shows interest in a career in marimba or percussion
- Shows interest in the entrepreneurial side of music
- Is currently enrolled in a college or university for a degree in music/percussion

Time Commitment:

- One meeting, to be scheduled, during the first week of June (can attend more meetings, if desired, but not required)
- Day of workshop: June 15th approx. 8am-9pm

Responsibilities:

- Work alongside the workshop team and guest artists to plan and coordinate the day via email and in-person meeting(s)
- Assemble workshop handouts
- Assist with on-site coordination of the day
- Coordinate instrument usage
- Function as an informational resource for attendees throughout the workshop
- Assist with stage management at evening concert

Benefits:

Intern will attend the workshop free of charge and work closely with professionals in their field. (Internship responsibilities will not interfere with attending any part of the workshop)

To apply:

Apply to attend the JK workshop and select “yes” when asked if you are interested in work/study opportunities. You will be contacted individually to fill out a separate application for the internship position. Workshop application is at : www.jennyklukken.com/workshop

For questions: jennyklukken@gmail.com